FULHAM SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

29 June 2019, 6pm, St John's Smith Square, London SW1P 3HA

Whitley The Animals (with players from North Ealing Primary School)

Williams Jurassic Park Suite

Tchaikovsky Swan Lake Suite

Janáček The Cunning Little Vixen Suite
(arranged by Charles Mackerras)

Williams Adventures on Earth (Suite from E.T.)

Creatures great and small roam freely in our early-evening family concert, marking the end of FSO's celebratory 60th anniversary season.

Local schoolchildren will join the orchestra for Kate Whitley's lively orchestral animal portraits to begin the concert, and we continue the theme with music from Tchaikovsky's first great ballet score, Swan Lake, one of the most popular pieces in the orchestral repertoire.

In The Cunning Little Vixen, Janáček blends folk-derived melodies with lush orchestration to evoke a glorious, life-affirming journey through the cycles of life. We complete the musical menagerie with music from John Williams' blockbuster film scores for E.T. and Jurassic Park, featuring creatures from the distant past and a far-off planet.
